A NOTE FROM THE OWNERS

“Our heart and soul went into the creation of Pippin Hill. We have been in the hospitality industry and planning events for over 20 years, so when we got the opportunity to design our own venue, we focused on blending beautiful aesthetics with superb function. For us, Pippin Hill is a place to experience estate grown wine, world-class cuisine, and expert service. For events, we created a winery where our brides ‘come home’ and experience their most memorable day in one of the country’s most remarkable settings.”

ABOUT THE OWNERS

Partners in vision, business, and life, Lynn Easton and Dean Andrews share a love of discovering unique destinations and bespoke experiences. They combined their talents and vision in 2012 to launch Easton Porter Group and create a meaningful, mindful and memorable hospitality company, to share their love of authentic food, wine and hospitality with others. Each brings a depth of career experience — Dean on the hospitality business side and Lynn with luxury event design and management expertise — to form a duo that covers all bases in global hospitality that drives our company's growth, including earning accolades as part of the 2016 Inc. 500 fastest growing private companies in America.

LYNN EASTON | Co-founder and Creative Director

As creative director and co-founder of Easton Porter Group, Lynn Easton provides strategic vision and a well-honed stylistic eye to all aspects of Easton Porter Group properties and operations. An international speaker and lifestyle-influencer, Lynn's sophisticated design sensibilities set the tone for the Easton Porter Group luxury brand and her impeccable attention to layered detail is what keeps us reaching high standards of quality. Her background as a live television producer has served Lynn well in founding Easton Events LLC, an internationally recognized ultra-luxury event and destination wedding planning firm under the Easton Porter Group umbrella. She is regularly featured on the "best of" lists published in Vogue and Harper's Bazaar. She is an inspired innovator and relentless pursuer of refinement, which is evident in the lush textures and patina of our celebrated boutique hotels, restaurants, wineries and event venues. Under her creative direction, each Easton Porter Group project, property or marquee occasion showcases an intuitive sense of stage setting with classic, fresh design. Lynn is a graduate of Barnard College in New York City, the sister school of Columbia University.

DEAN PORTER ANDREWS | Co-founder and CEO

Dean Andrews' bold vision and business acumen undergird all Easton Porter Group endeavors. He loves the hands-on aspects of developing hospitality enterprises, from finding exceptional properties to making guests feel welcome, to curating vintages for the wine lists, to fine-tuning market trends and business financial projections. He's honed expertise in every aspect of the industry through decades of international luxury hospitality management.

Andrews co-founded Easton Porter Group in 2012 after a distinguished run as President of the Americas and Senior Operating Officer at Orient-Express Hotels Ltd. During his twelve-year tenure with Orient-Express, he oversaw some of the world's most exclusive properties, expanded the company's portfolio from eleven properties to fifty, with total revenues of over $600 million, and was one of three directors charged by the board of Orient-Express Hotels to collaborate with the investment community during the company's successful IPO on the NY Stock Exchange in 2000. In addition to Orient-Express, Andrews has held senior management positions with Omni Hotels, including serving as a General Manager and Regional Vice President of Operations and as Vice President of Asset Management which entailed overseeing the company's strategic growth plans with Hong Kong-based ownership, Wharf Holdings, and began his career with hotel management positions with London-based Lex Hotels. Andrews studied at the University of Colorado and Columbia University, but is perhaps most proud of his honorary doctorate from Johnson & Wales University, given in recognition of his contributions to developing their food and beverage apprenticeship programs. He's acquired, repositioned and operated resorts, boutique and large luxury hotels and acclaimed restaurants across the globe, helping elevate the standards of hospitality excellence worldwide. Today he loves nothing more than honing the finer points of Easton Porter Group's boutique properties, because that's what three decades in the hospitality industry has taught him: every detail counts.

THE GRANARY

With its two-story vaulted ceiling and gracious 3,600 sq. ft., The Granary beautifully accommodates up to 200 guests for dinner and entertainment. Echoing Virginia's proud agrarian heritage, The Granary's barn-inspired aesthetic (rooftop cupolas and hardwood floors) captures the charm of a time past, yet is thoroughly modernized for executing flawless events. Special features include sound-control drapery, band/DJ specific power, ambient lighting and all-season temperature control.

THE VERANDA

Our classic stone Veranda offers the feel of Tuscany or Provence in the heart of Virginia. Many couples opt to enjoy post-ceremony cocktail hour here, an ideal place for savoring the sunset overlooking our landscaped courtyard and mountains. The weather-protected Veranda, which is fully enclosed during winter months, also makes a great ceremony spot in colder or inclement weather. This 1,800 sq. ft. space is complete with residential outdoor furniture, three bars, candlelit lanterns, bistro lighting, space heaters in the winter, available sound system, sun shades and overhead fans.

EASTON PORTER CORPORATE EXECUTIVE CHEF Ian Rynecki

Entertaining and gastronomy are in the heart and soul of Executive Chef Ian Rynecki, and sustainable, local sourcing is his passion. Inspired by the bounty of Pippin Hill's carefully cultivated kitchen gardens, Ian creates a parade of plates deliciously aligned with our garden-to-table concept. A native of Simsbury, Connecticut, Ian comes from a long line of good cooks. He worked under a Sushi Master and at a top resort in Big Sky, Montana before maturing into the chef de cuisine post at Farm Restaurant in Avon, Connecticut, a farm-to-table establishment with an abundant kitchen garden in his care. He staged at Gary Danko and Spruce, both Michelin-starred restaurants in San Francisco, before entering the world of catering. Ian's work with Taste Catering, Sonnier & Castle, and Neuman's Kitchen serves him well in his role at Pippin Hill, an environment created for distinctive events as well as agritourism. His refined wine sensibility assures that every bite is in tune with the viticulture of Pippin Hill, enjoyed within sight of the lovely hillside where it all begins.

PIPPIN HILL EXECUTIVE CHEF Victoria Cosner

Chef Victoria's culinary career began in high school when she attended CATEC. She really fell into what felt like a career from day one. Victoria started off cooking around Charlottesville including l'Etoile and RockSalt but ultimately landed her dream job at Pippin Hill in 2015 as a prep cook. Victoria's career path started to flow as she became the Sous Chef of line, Sous Chef of events, Executive Sous Chef, and now Executive Chef of Pippin Hill. One of her favorite parts of Pippin Hill is being able to walk into the beautiful gardens to harvest produce and herbs for the dishes she creates for those visiting.
